Bratfest XXVII -- Kegxodus

6 pm till ... on Saturday October 1, 2005

BRATFEST XXVII

Sadly Hawthorne House is no more. Now, Bratfest is trekking across the desert in search of the promised land, a new home, in a quest of mythical proportions: Kegxodus.

Enjoy a feast under the stars: vast quantities of bratwurst, corn, sauerkraut, cheese, cheesecakes, beer and soda. Bring your friends and family to an annual LPL tradition stretching back almost 30 years.

All we ask is a small ($5/person) donation. Or become a sponsor for $20. Commemorative t-shirts ($15) are also available at the party.

This year, Bratfest will be held at a private home (2610 E Florence Dr.), so please be especially considerate of the venue. Directions at right. For more info, contact bratfest@pir1.lpl.arizona.edu.
