

Bratfest XXVIII: Year of the Brat

6pm until . . . on Saturday, October 21, 2006

Every 12 years, a new moon rises on a year full of overflowing grills, creamy cheesecakes and butter-soaked corn. This is the Year of the Brat.

Come and enjoy a feast under the stars: vast quantities of bratwurst, corn, sauerkraut, cheese, cheesecakes, beer and soda. Bring your friends and family to an annual LPL tradition stretching back almost 30 years.

All we ask for is a small donation ($5/person). Better still, become a Bratfest sponsor for $20.

Commemorative t-shirts ($15) can be purchased on the night or can be pre-ordered at:

This year, Bratfest will be held at a private home (2610 E Florence Dr.), so please be especially considerate of the venue. Directions at right. For more info, contact:
