CAN I HAZ SCIENCE? Bridging the Generational Gap at LPL

Abstract: Why are all the undergrads talking about “all the things”? How have cat videos become an excuse for not completing research tasks? Why do the grads reference ‘YouTube’ constantly? If you have ever wondered one or none of those questions, consider attending this seminar. Topics will include: memes, cat memes, viral videos, Urban Dictionary, and GIFs vs JIFs. Bring questions and I’ll try to answer them to the best of our ability in order to facilitate a smooth interaction between the generations at LPL. GO BADGERS!

April 9, 2014 – Noon
Kuiper Space Sciences Building Room 309

Jello shots will be served at 11:45a.m. in the atrium
